While James O'Brien, who has charge of the Halcyon house at Watch Hill, adjoining the Fort Mansfield reservation, was absent from the premises Saturday, entrance was forced into the building by pulling off the shelter door and opening the main door with a skeleton key. The thieves took away about two gallons of whiskey, one dozen bottles of beer and about forty cigars. Chief of Police Bransfield after careful investigation was satisfied that the crime was committed by soldiers of the regular detail stationed at Fort Mansfield, or those who came to the fort as a special detail the latter part of the week. Chief Bransfield after gathering up clews that led to the fort laid the facts before the major in command Tuesday afternoon. Soon after every soldier at the fort was summoned before the commander and a rigid and searching examination was made that resulted in the arrest of Privates Kearns and Sheldon and their transfer as prisoners to headquarters at Fort Wright.

Colonel Rafferty, commanding the artillery district, and Chief Bransfield were soon in communication and the chief waived the right to demand the Under military law the same authority for punishment for crime that prevails in military posts obtains in the immediate vicinity and applies to this particular case. Privates Kearns and Sheldon will be courtmartialed at Fort Wright and Colonel Raferty assured Chief Bransfield that he would receive notice of the finding of the courtmartial and the penalty imposed.

Miss Mary E. Babcock, who came to Pawcatuck from Hopkinton with her parents many years ago, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Orvills Briggs, in West Broad street, Tuesday night in her Sist year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock, her father dying about sixty years ago. Miss Babcock was a tafforess by occupation and was an expert needle worker. She was a member of the Seventhday Buptist church and noted for her piety and Christian spirit.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Orville Briggs of Pawcatuck and Mrs. Charles E. Emmons of Moodus, and a brother, William D. Babcock, of Pawcatuck.

Miss Florence Elizabeth Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Humphreys, of Pawtucket, formerly of Westerly, and Joseph Marzoli of Westerly were married Wednesday morning in Christ Episcopal church, Rev. William F. Williams officiating. The bride wore a gown of French white serge and a white picture hat. She was attended by Miss Erzia Marzoli, sister of the groom, who wore a gown of blue silk and a black picture hat. William Erown was best man. After the marriage ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents. Charles Perry spoke in commendation of the report, which will be generally discussed at the next meeting, and his motion it was voted that the committee get all available information on the subject by that time.

Mr. Clark spoke further in relation to the matter and cited the decisive action taken in New London as worthy of emulation.

The president read the list of committees and their membership, which have already been published, and they were unanimously approved.

Charles Perry, chairman of the executive committee, presented communications received from A. W. Windham, late engineer of the Panama canai-construction, offering to lecture on the subject under the auspices of the board of trade on Tuesday, April 4. The cost of the lecture, which is illustrated, would be $25 and expenses, Mr. Perry said it was necessary to have something to elevate the standing of the board of the bectures of this class and to give the public the general benefit. On motion of Mr. Clark, the educational committee was authorized to arrange for the lecture. Ira. R. Crandall and Albert G. Martin spoke in favor of the project and hoped arrangements would be made to make the event public in character.

Dr. John Champlin, chairman of the committee on trade and manufactures, stated that the committee had under consideration a proposition for the location of an industry in Westerly, the nature of which was not divulged.

Defeated New Haven, 50-23.

The basketball game played in St. Patrick's hall Tuesday evening attracted the largest attendance of the season. The game was full of life from the start. When the New Haven boys, who claim the championship, came upon the floor, it looked as if the Y. M. C. A. boys of this place would get beaten and that the visitors would take the penant home with them. The game was started at 8.30 o'clock as the visiting team did not arrive until the 8.03 express from New Haven. It was a fast game and it was not long before the Mystic boys had the lead and good work was being done. The first half ended 29 to 9 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. In the second half, the visitors showing signs of rough house made the home team work hard. At the end the score was a victory for Mystic, 50 to 23, which gives the championship of the state to this place. The boys have lost only one game this season, which gives them a good standing. The manager, Walter J. Shea, has done well by his team and much praise is due him for their good work in playing. The next game to be played here will be with Brown university five. The referee was Edward Denehee of Stonington, scorer, William Mullaney, and timer, Edward McKoge. Following is the lineup and the baskets made:

McKone rg, 7 baskets; Gley rg, 5, 1 foul; Davis c, 9, 5 fouls; Wilcox rf, 1; Larkin lf. For New Haven, McGinley c, 2 backets; Parker rg, 4, 5 fouls; Saxe lf, 2, Local Gleanings.

Coughs

Coughing is produced by an inflammation and irritation of the membrane lining th

This irritation is usually provoked by cold, dust or dampness.

It is this irritated membrane to which the tubercle bacillus readily pays its addresses. As the tubercle bacillus the cause of consumption (tuberculosis) it is desirable to relieve the irritation at once, or the disease may

If consumption has already developed, and is in its early stages, let the same treatment prevail, as coughing ruptures the delicate lung cells and strains the tissues and the little blood vessels. It is the effort to clear the sponge-like air cells of the lungs of the masses of mucus (palegm) which settles in them, which causes the violent coughing spells.
